SENIORS

- Queenstown Resort College are here at lunchtime today in the Careers Office. Come along to listen about what they offer.
- Year 12 and 13 who are studying towards their Numeracy CAA, please meet Mrs Judd in COM3 in Tutorial this week.
Any Year 12s from Pathways are also welcome.
- All Year 13 Students who are interested in being involved in the Senior Ball Committee: please meet with Mrs Clent in MAT3 at the beginning of Wednesday lunchtime, week nine (2nd April).
- Any Year 11 -13 student wanting to compete in the Whangarei Rotary Speech Competition on Saturday 24th of May please see Mrs Lemon in ENG5.
- Our Year 7 students need YOU!
KERI Reading is looking for approx 40 Year 13 students to become KERI Reading tutors. This is a fabulous opportunity to support a younger student, give back to the school all while gaining a cornerstone.

The program runs for an hour per week during Term 2 and till Week 7 in Term 3. You will be offered a 20min training course to become familiar with the pause, prompt, praise method of supporting young readers.

Please collect a form from reception or Mrs Halliday in the LEC.

P.S Previous tutors state this is the most worthwhile thing they have done at school.

LIBRARY

- Year 9 - Readers Cup is a Year 9 interschool competition for readers. For more information, meet Mrs Smith in the Library at interval, today.

SPORTS

- Can all Netball umpires please let Jodie know by the end of the day if you are unable to umpire this Saturday. If you don't let her know she will assign you a game and you will be expected to do the duty.
